

Do It Now!

Don't wait until the price of material and labor has advanced but BUILD NOW while lumber is cheaper than it has been for three years and cheaper than it ever will be again. In what safer or more profitable way can you save money than by putting it into a building which would have cost you 20 per cent. more a year ago and the same amount a year hence?

PREMATURE BLAST

Kills a White Man and Four Negroes on the C., C. & O. Work.

While working in the Indian Ridge tunnel on the C., C. & O. about five miles from this city Thursday morning an explosion occurred that snuffed out the life of a white man named Holman and three negro laborers. All bodies were badly mutilated. Holman was a foreman for John Dillard. The presumption is that the men drilled into an unshot hole.

Mrs. Seraphina Strain Dead

Mrs. Seraphina Strain died at Limestone last week at the advanced age of eighty years. She was a grand old woman and the mother of Ed and Tom Strain, of this city. The remains were laid to rest in Urbana cemetery, near Limestone.

S. D. Hampton Dead.

Mrs. Sue Marsh Dead.

Mrs. Sue Marsh died at her home in Afton Wednesday of this week, after a lingering illness. She was past the three score and ten age and had served the Lord long and faithfully as a member of the Presbyterian church. Funeral services were conducted in the Presbyterian church at Jonesboro by Rev. Dayton A. Dobbs, of this city. Mrs. Marsh was well known here and was a sister of Jacob Range. Truly a good woman has gone to her reward.

Society Happenings.

Last Friday Miss Mary Hardin entertained a party of friends in honor of her guest, Miss Dobson, of Knoxville, by taking them on an outing through the famous gorge on the narrow gauge road. Dinner was served at Pardee's Point and the day was immensely enjoyed by those present. Tuesday night of this week she entertained at her lovely home on Watauga avenue in honor of Miss Dobson and a large number of friends were present. Delicious refreshments were served.

Whisman-Vance.

A marriage of local interest was solemnized at 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon at 503 Mary street, when Miss Bessie Vance became the bride of John H. Whisman, of Johnson City. Rev. W. H. T. Squires, the bride's pastor, was the officiating clergyman, and the ceremony was witnessed by a small circle of relatives and intimate friends.

Miss Vance wore a traveling gown of blue cloth with hat and gloves to match. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Whisman left on the west-bound train for Buchanan, Va., where they will spend their honeymoon with the groom's family at that place. After two weeks they will be at home to their friends in Johnson City.

Mr. Whisman was formerly of Abingdon, but is now a member of the prosperous firm of Whisman Bros., retail merchants, Johnson City.

His wife has numerous friends in Bristol, where she has for a number of years been employed in the office of Pitzer's Department Store, newly named the Empire Department Store, and where she was most highly esteemed.

—Herald-Courier.

The many friends of Mr. Whisman in this city are preparing to give him a warm welcome when he returns with his bride about July 15.

OVERCOME BY HEAT.

Chester Harvey Falls from Roof at Furnace and Sustains Injuries.

While painting the roof of the stack house at the furnace Wednesday Chester Harvey was overcome by heat and fell from the roof 35 feet to the ground below, alighting on a pile of slag. Both arms and his jaw bone were broken and he was otherwise badly bruised. His wounds were promptly dressed and he was taken to the home of John Onks, where he is being cared for.

Kilby-Legard.

Miss Leanna Legard was married to Robert H. Kilby at 9 o'clock Tuesday night. The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride, No. 301 Ash street. The Rev. W. H. T. Squires was the officiating minister. The marriage was wholly informal, and was witnessed only by members of the immediate family and a few near friends. The groom was attended by Jas. A. Vines, of Johnson City.

Following the ceremony, the couple left on the night train for the home of the groom in Johnson City. Mr. Kilby has for several years been an efficient clerk in the postoffice at Johnson City. His bride is an estimable young woman and has many friends in the city who will be pleased to extend their cordial good wishes. —Bristol Herald-Courier.

Here's looking at you, Bob, and may your shadow never grow less.

Furniture Prizes

At the Tennessee Furniture Store here Wednesday the great drawing contest for $150.00 was started by the Storch Furniture Company. The fifteenth prize is the grand one, being a beautiful $75.00 suit of furniture.

Every purchaser is given a chance with each dollar's worth of goods purchased; and also in addition to this, right then and there, at time of payment the buyer draws for another and smaller prize, receiving one for each dollar paid on furniture. A lady was the first purchaser and she therefore holds ticket number one and several others following. The number of the ticket, however, is not important; unless you happen to hold the lucky one. The contest will be conducted much like the last one; by the coupon holders themselves. A blacksmith drew the largest prize at the last drawing, and in this instance, same as in the other, money cuts no figure; except, of course, the more you buy the more chances you have to get one or more of the grand prizes; but in any and all events you will draw a useful prize of some kind, with each dollar's worth of goods bought. Another carload of fine furniture, to be sold at bargain prices, is expected next week, with still seven more cars to follow.

Beginning promptly at one o'clock, Saturday, July 4th, the Tennessee Furniture Store will give away 5,000 marbles. Every caller will be given seven, as an advertisement previous to starting another week of slaughter prices on the balance of the old bankrupt stock of the Tennessee Furniture & Store Co.
